BHUPP !!

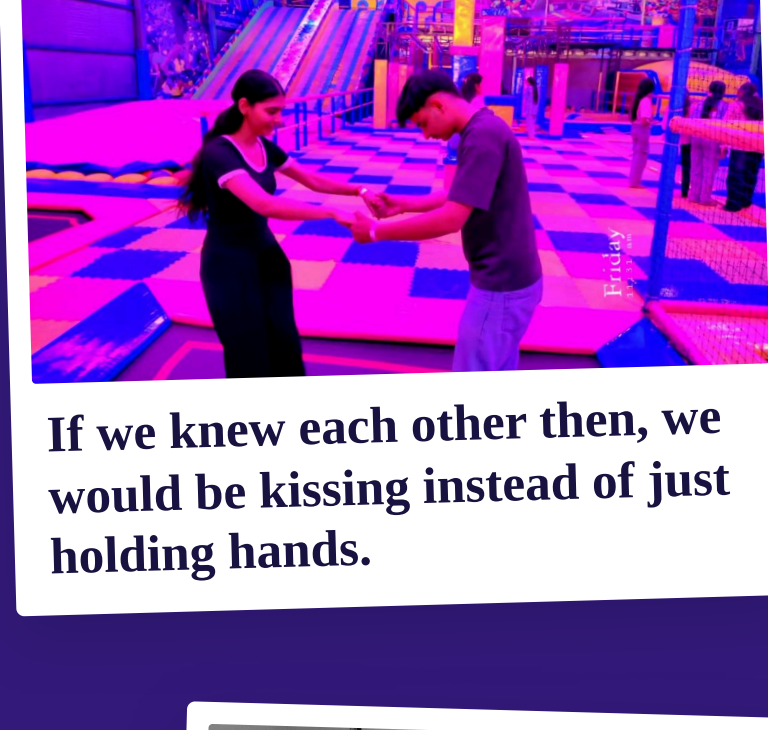

Some of my favourite Chirkut pictures

Always crying and complaining about something.

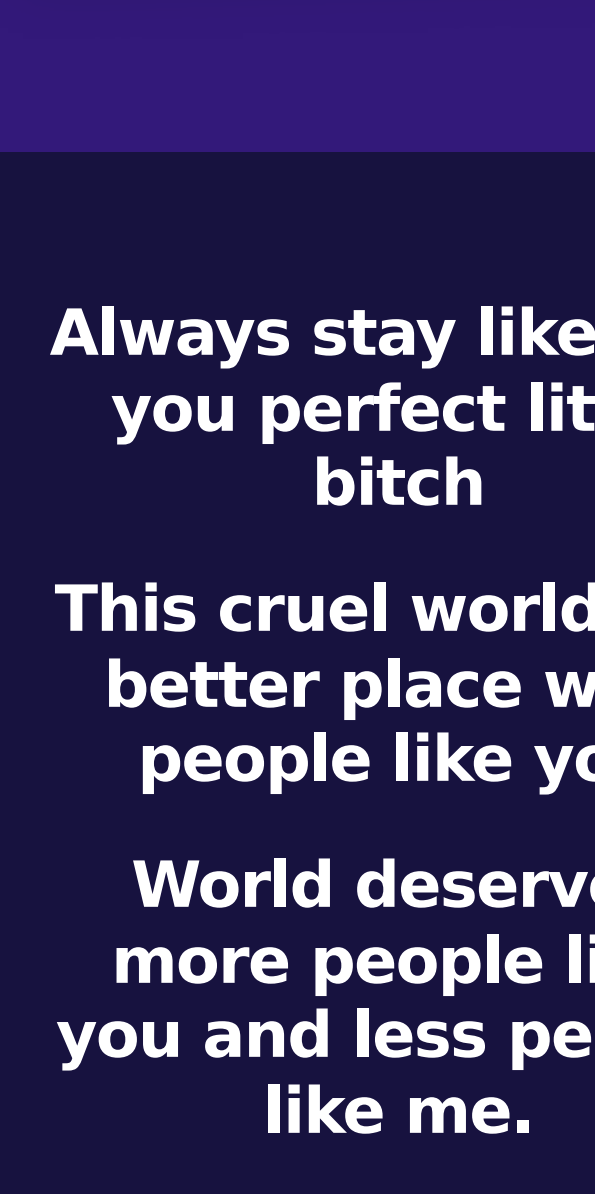

Chota Don

If we knew each other then, we would be kissing instead of just holding hands.

You put hearts on my head and I let it slide. You're welcome.

Golden hour.

Always stay like this you perfect little bitch

This cruel world is a better place with people like you

World deserves more people like you and less people like me.

Anyways, Happy Birthday again peanut 🤍
